LAS VEGAS, Nev. – Angel Park Golf Club was recently honored by Las Vegas Weekly and Nevada Magazine as best golf course in Las Vegas. Posted on May 26, Angel Park Golf Club was named Best Golf Course in the 2011 Las Vegas Weekly Readers' Choice Awards. “We are thrilled to earn the top spot in these rankings compiled by two of Las Vegas' most highly regarded local publications,” said Greg Brockelman, Director of Golf for Angel Park Golf Club. “Despite the fact that Las Vegas is an international destination, we have always made a concerted effort to appeal to the local golfer. And over the years, the local motion has helped to develop a unique vibe at the club that all golfers, no matter where they are from, can appreciate.”

About Nevada Magazine:

In January 1936, Nevada Highways and Parks — known today as Nevada Magazine — was introduced by the state highway department. Always an information source for Nevada residents and tourists, what started as a digest-sized bulletin has grown into a colorful magazine. For 75 years, Nevada Magazine has been telling the Silver State's story — in Las Vegas, Reno, Lake Tahoe, and beyond. In print and online, it highlights urban and rural travel, dining, people, history, gaming, events, shows, and more. On the publication's web site, you'll find content from the bimonthly magazine as well as online-only material, such as "Web Extras" and online bonuses. Nevada Magazine is now a division of the Nevada Commission on Tourism, published bimonthly, and based in Carson City and Las Vegas. The approximately 80-page magazine has a circulation of 20,000. About 120,000 editions of Events & Shows, the contents of which appear in the magazine, are printed as a stand-alone publication. Nevada Magazine operates as an enterprise fund, meaning it is self-funded and dependent on advertising, calendar, and subscription revenue.
