About CopperWynd Resort & Club

CopperWynd Resort and Club is an intimate 32-room, boutique-style inn that sits atop a desert ridge on the eastern slope of Scottsdale's McDowell Mountains, adjacent to countless acres of rugged Sonoran desert. From this perched position, guests enjoy sweeping views of Fountain Hills below as well as the undisputed crown jewel of the Superstition Mountains – Four Peaks – and Superstition Mountains in the distance. These enchanting views play an important role in creating an over-all vibe at CopperWynd that radiates the palpable air of romance.

CopperWynd's renowned restaurant, Alchemy Restaurant and Wine Bar, offers an Inspired American dining experience with seasonal specialties and other artesian dishes created with fresh and local ingredients by Chef Paul O'Connor. The restaurant and wine bar are oriented to take full advantage of the spectacular views from the property. Large expanses of glass allow patrons to enjoy the afternoon sunset in the comforts of the dining room, and large glass doors slid open to provide a unique al fresco dining experience courtesy of the Sonoran desert. A sprawling terrace wraps around the building to offer additional outdoor seating for the wine bar and restaurant.

CopperWynd offers a number of amenities including a full-service spa with a host of treatments including massage therapy, facials, steam sauna, manicures, pedicures and more. The 5,000 square-foot Fitness Center is outfitted with cardiovascular and resistance-training equipment, and 40 fitness classes are offered each week including Aerobics, Spinning, Yoga, Pilates and Tai Chi. Personal trainers are also available for one-on-one training. CopperWynd offers a selection of venues for weddings, meetings and private events including the Sonoran View Room and Executive Boardroom that accommodate groups of 5 to 50. CopperWynd also features outdoor space such as courtyards and the beautifully groomed 5,000 sq.ft. Event Lawn for gatherings up to 200 people, an ideal place for weddings and other special events. Alchemy may also be reserved for special events. In addition to SunRidge Canyon Golf Club located a short par 4 away, CopperWynd is also situated very near a handful of other highly ranked public golf facilities.

CopperWynd is home to nine lighted tennis courts, plus the resort offers more than 3,000 square feet of sparkling swimming pools and a secluded whirlpool spa. All of this makes CopperWynd an ideal choice for those seeking the Sonoran desert's unique brand of quiet solitude without the inconvenience of seclusion. Instead, all of Scottsdale's world-class dining, shopping and nightlife are located within a 20-minute drive. For more information about CopperWynd, visit www.copperwynd.com or call 480-333-1900.
